

/Lin and Johnpaul Jones

to build the $12.25 million pedestrian bridge.

. The Clark County Historical Museum frequently offers new displays showing off its rare and extensive holdings, including more than 200 American Indian baskets.

. A new 80-acre Capt. William Clark Park at Cottonwood Beach has been established at Washougal.

. The west barracks area of Vancouver Barracks is being reconstructed and put to modern use.

. Workers in the Fort Vancouver Tapestry Project spent more than four years preparing a 108-foot-long series of 35 woven panels illustrating Vancouver's past. It's been displayed all over the state and in Japan.

. The Pearson Air Museum continues to offer displays and festivals celebrating the history of flight.

. Fort Vancouver National Historic Site continues its archaeological exploration of the 1825 British Hudson's Bay Company outpost that became one of the West's major U.S. military outposts through World War II.

. The Two Rivers Heritage Museum of Washougal and the North Clark Historical Museum at Amboy continually upgrade their displays and offer public programs.